

Product Update

Release Date: April 23, 2012

A Division of Carson Manufacturing Co., Inc.

To: Master Distributors, Stocking Dealers, Dealers, OEM's, Service Centers
From: Toni Woodard, Director of Sales and Marketing
Subject: SA-361-22AMP for Motorcycle, ATV and Off-road Vehicles

SA-361-22 Amplifier for Motorcycle Application

The SA-361-22AMP is now available for use on Motorcycles, ATV's and Off-road Vehicles. This amplifier has been stabilized and conformal coated to reduce the risk from vibration and elements from the weather. Amplifier should be shock mounted and installed in hard saddlebag or equivalent. Waterproof motorcycle rated switches are recommended. The Carson SA-361-22AMP is small, effective, reliable and affordable.

SA-361-22 AMP

FEATURES

- Compact 100 watt amplifier
- Amplifier has been stabilized and conformal coated for use on Motorcycles, ATV'S and off road vehicles.
- DIP switch programmable options allow siren to be customized for each installation
- Instant-On provides automatic power when a siren function is selected
- Terminal block wiring at the remote amplifier offers easy installation and serviceability
- Hands-free Horn Ring Cycler 2 (HRC2) enables siren tone selection through the horn ring
- Meets Class A sound level requirements and is California Title 13 configurable
- 5 year no hassle warranty

AVAILABLE APRIL 2012

The model number for this new product is the SA-361-22AMP. This model number should be referenced when placing orders or making product inquiries.

At Carson, we employ a culture of constant improvement. We instill this philosophy in everything we do from product design, engineering and production to sales and service. The new SA-361-22AMP is just one of many products being continuously evaluated for future improvements. We believe good is never good enough and work tirelessly to make good products better. We have a 40 year reputation to prove it!